When writing to us, include your SOS business number or federal employer identification number (FEIN) and your phone number.

What happens after you apply

When we receive your completed form, we will review your request and contact you.

We verify if:

- All tax returns have been filed up to the date the entity stopped doing business
- All taxes, penalties, and interest have been paid up to the date the entity stopped doing business
- Your business has no assets such as:
 - Banks
 - Property
 - Licenses
 - Stocks

If you have not filed and paid your tax liability, including penalties and interest, up to the date your entity stopped doing business, you can still apply.

Penalty

We may impose a penalty equal to 50% of the total tax abated with interest if:

- You continue doing business
- Have undisclosed assets

IN TODAY'S FREE PRESENTATION:

How To Build A Business Credit File That's Not Attached To Your SSN

Unlike personal credit, businesses are actually rewarded for borrowing more with lower rates and more credit. Follow these steps to start building yours.

How To Use Lender Financing To Grow Your Business

Smart businesses never risk their own personal credit or assets to build a business. Learn how to place all the risk on lenders and protect your family from your business' liabilities.

How I Got A $20,000 Unsecured Line Of Credit Without A Personal Guarantee

Discover the exact step-by-step process I used to obtain lender funding to start my credit repair service even while I had damaged personal credit. Your results will vary.

Avoid These "Red Flags" That Cause Most Credit Denials

Discover the most common mistakes business owners make when applying for credit and how to avoid them.
