Subject: Hi - First email - 2-24-44

Now that I have all of your emails, this is the best way to communicate everything that is going on. I pray that we can use this channel to communicate and answer questions.

1. The cemetery side of your father has been taken care of. Malsi and I visited there the Thursday of Thermans passing. There were some fees that had to be paid and it is handles.
2. I've called the Mortuary side to find out when they will schedule an intake side to see what additional dollars need to be paid. They picked Therman up on Wednesday the 16th from St. Marys hospital.
3. St. Mary's prepared the death certificate and sent it to the state. I am not sure when that comes back, but it generally takes a while. If there is a problem with the name (Therman) as opposed to Thurman then they may need to correct that. I told the person that she should put an (AKA Thurman Robinson). I am hopeful that she did. When that comes back I will let you know.
4. I called the mortuary side today and the person said, that as of last week there were 54 people ahead of me. He said it's due mainly because of the staff working each familys case. He told me he would try to get my name up on the list. Amin has agreed to go with me during that visit.
5. Your dad created a will and had it notarized in 2020. He told me of it and I have forwarded it on to an attorney that deals with probate cases. This person was referred to my by his friend in the bay area and also, Larry forwarded a local attorney who forwarded the same person as she (Betty) was retired. I put in a call again today and am waiting on her response. We spoke last Friday and she said she would call me on Sunday.
6. Rest assured, your dad, my husband made sure to take care of his children. I am waiting to be advised on the process. Nothing will happen until it is recorded in the courts and me as the executor will be responsible in executing every one of his wishes.

Please use this forum to share your thoughts, concerns or grievances. If any of this conversation is posted 'globally', I will shut it down or shut that person off. It's tough and I understand that the issues that have been raised is somewhat typical. But, he's your dad and I am honored to abide by his wishes.

There is a lot to be done to get him in his final resting place. All the while, as the Cemetery side said, the dead's income stops but the bills continue.

Your dads phone is still open but mine is off limits for grievances. I'm not a therapist and I have more that need on my plate.

I'm working on an obituary and it may be at the end of the month before there is a service.

I hope all of the emails listed above are exact emails and that you get this message.

Peace and love to you all.

Fatimah

Will you please forward the lawyers office, lawyers name, phone number and email who is responsible for handling my dads estate ?

Thank you Executor

I replied to all. Why do you want to argue and play the victim so much ? What is said in this group stay in this group and all that stuff. It's like you keep making subliminals towards me. (Are you sick in the head? Why am I calling a dead persons phone crazy lunatic) Your name is fatimah so idk why we are contacting his phone, the idea of it is just sick ! 😊 🥰 🥰 at this point I don't know what your looking for but your judgment and personal feelings aren't needed in reference to his children and passing. You don't no out relationship with him so you shoulda mind the business that tends to you. Your husband not all the other shit. You've always vrrbally abused my father about his parenting although we are all grown and made our own decisions. I can't believe you really went that hard on a senior citizen who smile so much and won't no 1 bring his joy down but his evil, Pisces wife who basically played him !

This is what I mean ! Your closure is different from ours. Any every one mourns differently. You killed him and you didn't want to take care of your husband so at this point you got exactly what you wanted a dead senior citizen and his assets to execute his will !!!! You weren't respectful when he was alive so idk why it's suppose to change now. Im so disappointed in you lady ! the failure to properly inform THURMAN JUNIOR. YOU CALLED THE KIDS THAT DONT REALLY GIVE A FUCK ! Your karma awaits you, widow !!! You have single-handedly tried to clear out Rosetta and Thurman's estate being abusive physically and verbally to my father, elder abuse ! So please take accountability for you talking about his Dementia, Alzheimer's, just belittling him and trying to crush his ego and spirit every chance you were able to. and other diseases medical issue that he was dealing with that only you and I know about. You were not the motivator nor the healer. The fact you call me to bitch and complain about my father and find a ground in a median to use against him and then don't call me when he's unhealthy, you're a snake. So he did what he do best. He cut the lawn!

The snake is out the bag devil wife 🐍. You didn't even want to be the wife that takes care of him which makes y'all marriage useless in his benefit and wishes. So how's he's dead. You should pay yourself on the back and be proud. We are uniformed with you not sending CRITICAL UPDATES/ the most important information. Like what's the big secret ? and so what if you didn't get the response that you feel like you should have received, just not sure family.

And you have made that clear. So you allowed him to die on his deathbed without properly informing his children and keeping us up-to-date. Very scandalous of you.

You are withholding information ! PERIOD !

So what is the following information that his children were never privilege to because as his wife, it is your job to inform all four children in a timely manner which you failed to do but it comes to no surprise because you weren't going to be a timely wife and helping him with his health manners, instead you held them over his head. :

1)

I still need the name, address, doctor and room my father was in before he died ?

2) what is the information for the lawyer ? lawyers office, lawyers name, phone number and email who is responsible for handling my dads estate ?

3) what is the contact information for the funeral home ?

He died on 2/14 and the first group communication we received is today 2/24/2022. Which is 10 days later. Lead your mothers husband had did this bullshit to you when your mother was about to die. So don't sit here and play the victim, you know exactly what you did and how you manipulated the situation and that's why you ended up losing your husband in the end. Forget the fact that he's your husband you fail to take a count of how many other peoples lives he touched including yours so it is very selfish of you to carry the perspective that you have. Is the entitlement and selfishness for me then you want to keep his phone on so you can be the recipient of all his good energy and good graces in blessings. You're the devil and I hope you burn in hell. You do not deserve to be of lift it in his glory, because you are the demise of all that. You are the black dark energy, evil, condescending, negligent, backstabbing, fake a liar. A manipulator. It's when you pick and choose to communicate and when you choose to be silent. Observation is key. Take accountability because you're his wife so you're 50% of the fucking problem. Period !!

Thank you for doing everything yourself. Why you talking to malsi and my other brother who don't give two shits. And choose and pick when you want to be inclusive was your option and decision. No shade !

It doesn't surprise me that my father was dead the day/morning I called your daughter because she carries the same sick energy and hurt that you have so I'm even heard about her perspective and how toxic she say you are as well. So I clearly contacted the incorrect individual about an update on my father, so both of you guys are not fit for the position. Because your heads are not in the right places.

I hope you get all the widow benefits you deserve. Thankfully my father was able to exit the marriage first. So you will be left to remember every year on Valentine's Day because you married him old and your vows say with old, and taking care of your old ass husband which you said you was gon divorce and leave him. Not to mention how you beat him with a broom and beat him up in Jamaica, bruh retired. Your relationship hurt our family. It pushed his kids further. Do you know how mean you were to my dad even in the morning axing him why he wants to work out in whatever space. So the lack of inclusion, the lack of partnership and togetherness broke his soul. You can deny the elder abuse all you want. You killed your professor and whatever anger you had from your father raping you and whatever abuse you experience from your last THREE FAILED MARRIAGES ! You no exactly what it did to him angry bird. And you neglected your husband and left him alone. He felt no love, or affection and you constantly shot his ego down because he's old and now he's gone so you got what you wanted. ~~100~~ Not to take care of his old ass. It's

It's the fact he beat you to the punch ! And he did not allow you to make him suffer as long as you would have liked to make him suffer with it seem like it would be for a lifetime. Because you have no remorse. He refused to go into a hospital and come out less capable so that you could increases on your tyranical verbal abuse and down talking. I'm sure you would have beat my father for a third time after she got out the hospital. Definitely thought you spent enough of him and his moms money to at least take care of him but he refused to allow you to see him in that form.

Jesus favorites him. His mother called him to come home, she said son, you have suffered enough. Come home with your mother now. He deserves to have a wife that appreciated his work and was inspired and motivated by who he was, but he has not had an easy life and he has not been dealt the most favorable cards sir why you? Because he felt sorry for you and he could give you the love and support that you never receive from your father or your last three husbands. Of course Thurman never does enough and everybody always has something to say about what she does, a constant lack of appreciation.

Since your the 1 that took life out of his year in this toxic ass marriage stunt. You know you killed his spirit and last wished so good fucking bye dad !

You never send me the doctors info so you made it impossible for me to see him on his death bed. I hope you suffer greatly cuz you deserve everything your gonna get with your broken arm. At least he don't have to sit back and feel sorry for you cuz you don't really deserve it. He wanted his wife to take care of his old ass and you drove him to an early grave. Thanks for nothing.

We never came to you for solice. You the one that gaged. My daddy gagged you bootz ! Who is astrology say that he would teach you a lesson. And he taught you the ultimate lesson. Enjoy being alone woman. Your wish has been granted from God. Don't cry dry your eyes.

I told y'all he was gon died Dumasses so fatimah you got what you wanted. A dead old ass husband that you WASNT GOING TO TAKE CARE OF! Like you ended up learing your lesson in the end. Now you left old and alone and I will make sure you get ZERO GRATITUDE WHEN I post THE VIDEOS AND CONVERSTIONS AND HOW YOU REALLY FELT AND SPOKE ABOUT MY FATHER ! I hope the police investigate you and put you in jail and put you all over KTLA five news for the widow attempting in aiding in the death of Thurman Robinson LA TTC professor.

Again you punished him for everything every man did to you from birth. He just wanted to be loved and receive affection and you had the power and abused it and the wife wanted to hurt him so you did what you did best and left him by himself. You secretly made it so his children cannot be together on his deathbed because you really did not want him to have the love and support. So idk why you get a sympathy for killing and burying your husband. I'm just glad he don't have to suffer at the hands of you. When you were around, he was not able to talk to his children song you have a very big part in pushing them away. And he does not reciprocate that with your children so again you were not being fair.

I will never understand why he allow you to RIP early. So the question is,

Did you learn your lesson ? Respectfully your Professor at LATTTC, Prof T. robinson

He would have live and loved his grandchildren way longer and happier alone, and without you by his side. The grand children hate you, and they have every reason to despise you. Because you took their help away early. But he left it up to you. Go figure. And you didn't honor your husband or his wishes respectful. I got text from your daughter about how you should not be scolding him for the father he was or his kids because it precedes your relationship but you punish him instead. you always been a sneaky nosey ass annoying shit starting shit talking nagging ass investigating ass wife who try to demised him and castrate him every change you get ! So you got what you wanted, an early check out.

Was it worth it ? Is your heart broken ? Y'all thought he was coming out the hospital huh ? But you took it as me being negative and condescending instead of me being realistic and informative. So you have continued to fill my father, time and time again and what is most powerful about his exit is that he made the last decision to let you know that you will not control his faith, and you will not be allowed to miss use and abuse him.

Dad yoU don't deserve to suffer or be treated like that so ima happy you were able to get out on your own terms and be with your mom.

Maybe if she fully informed your children of the situation at hand and did it take you so lightly, it may have been a chance for you to come back but even on your deathbed she still shaded you God gon get her. and respectfully did not go about things as you wish because of her personal negative feelings, energy and opinions. All I hear is how you make more money than him and you have more status and he doesn't know how to do this, etc. vice versa we don't have the same impact on you, your daughters in grandchildren. His family not protected from your eveli but he never gave that in your direction. Be fair !

LIKE HES DEAD AND THE BS YOU PULLING IS COMING BETWEEN HIS CHILDREN. WAY TO BREAK UP THE ENTIRE FAMILY ! I no your happy and feel accomplished. Nor did you allow his granddaughter or other ppl to see him. So you wanted him to die alone in a cold ass room. You no he wasn't going to no Kaiser. So I hope you got what you wanted and verbalized confidently, you wished to not take care of old thurman so what the point of y'all marriage. You spend his money ! I told him get a young bitch. And not an on-site dead beat, pressed fat old Pig patty as a wife !

PERIOD !

So AGAIN what is the the following information that his children were never privilege to :

1)

I still need the name, address, doctor and room my father was in for before he died ?

2) what is the information for the lawyer ? lawyers office, lawyers name, phone number and email who is responsible for handling my dads estate ?

3) what is the contact information for the funeral home ?

At this point I'm entitled to my feelings, there were situations and occurrences, I don't feel like you've dealt with them properly. Is my opinion, you have your opinion, I'm sure we don't agree with a whole bunch of stuff you think either. So it is what it is we're all grown. You have devastated this family. And it is not appreciated the way we are left to bury Thurman Sr.

BITCH ! You really treated him like some prostitute or a hoe off the street. Just ran this man into the ground. I never took a count of how his grand children may feel.

Where is the love?
