PROPERTY ADDRESS (Subject of Eviction): 6301 Pale Sage Dr Apt [Unit Number]
Houston, TX 77049

DATE OF EVICTION: May 7, 2024 (approximately)

GROUND FOR APPEAL:

I. UNLAWFUL EVICTION AND DUE PROCESS VIOLATIONS

1. Eviction was carried out by Sheriff without proper notice and opportunity to be heard 2. Personal belongings were illegally removed and destroyed during eviction 3. Defendant was not given adequate time to vacate or retrieve possessions 4. Eviction violated Fair Housing Act and Americans with Disabilities Act protections 5. Discriminatory conduct based on LGBTQ status and disability status

II. PROCEDURAL DEFECTS

1. Improper service of eviction notice
2. Insufficient notice period before eviction was executed
3. Failure to provide reasonable accommodation for disability
4. Court proceedings conducted without proper representation or understanding
5. Appeal deadline not properly communicated to Defendant

III. SUBSTANTIVE DEFENSES

1. Rent was paid or payment was tendered in good faith
2. Landlord failed to maintain habitable premises (breach of warranty of habitability)
3. Landlord retaliated against Defendant for requesting repairs or asserting tenant rights
4. Eviction was pretextual and based on discriminatory animus
5. Defendant experienced extreme hardship (death of father, criminal charges subsequently DISMISSED)

IV. DAMAGES RESULTING FROM UNLAWFUL EVICTION

1. Loss of personal property (clothing, documents, electronics, furniture)
2. Emotional distress and mental anguish
3. Loss of housing stability and homelessness
4. Damage to credit and rental history
5. Economic losses (inability to work, moving costs, replacement costs)

RELIEF REQUESTED:

Appellant respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Grant this appeal and set the matter for trial de novo in County Court at Law
2. Issue a stay of eviction enforcement pending appeal
3. Order return of illegally seized property or compensation for its value
4. Award damages for unlawful eviction, including:
 - Economic damages (lost property value, moving costs, lost wages)
 - Non-economic damages (emotional distress, mental anguish)
 - Exemplary damages for willful and wanton conduct
 - Attorney's fees and costs (if applicable)
5. Expunge or seal the eviction record due to procedural defects and unlawful conduct
6. Any other relief the Court deems just and proper

PAUPER'S AFFIDAVIT (REQUEST FOR WAIVER OF APPEAL FEES):

I, Thurman Earl Robinson Jr., being of sound mind and under oath, state the following:

1. I am currently indigent and unable to pay the costs of this appeal 2. My monthly income is $0 (unemployed until tax season begins January 2, 2026) 3. I have no significant assets or savings 4. I am currently facing eviction from my current residence due to financial hardship 5. I am experiencing homelessness instability 6. I have medical disability limiting my ability to earn income 7. I am recovering from the death of my father and loss of employment

I request that the Court waive all appeal fees, court costs, and filing fees based on my indigent status pursuant to Texas Rule of Civil Procedure 145.

VERIFICATION:

I, Thurman Earl Robinson Jr., swear under penalty of perjury that the facts stated in this Notice of Appeal are true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.
