

Thurman Robinson Celebrates Birthday with Paperback Launch of Bestselling Memoir

Thurman Malik Robinson, M.S. Celebrates Birthday with Paperback Launch of Bestselling Memoir, Empowering Aspiring Investors Through AI and Real Estate Mastery

SHERIDAN, Wyo. - Aug. 27, 2025 - PRLog -- Sheridan, WY – On his 37th birthday, Thurman Malik Robinson, M.S., renowned real estate investor, CFO of APPS, LLC, and "Renovation Rockstar" featured in Think Realty Magazine, announces the official release of the paperback edition of his transformative memoir, From Foster Care to Financial Freedom: My Journey with AI as My Guide. The book, which chronicles Robinson's rise from foster care challenges to financial independence through smart investing and AI-driven strategies, remains on pre-sale for its upcoming third format until fully rolled out. Digital versions launched in July 2025 on platforms like Amazon Kindle, Apple Books, and Lulu, garnering praise for its practical insights on credit building, fix-and-flip projects, and philanthropy.

Robinson, a Crenshaw High School and Virginia State University alumnus, credits his success to innovative AI tools for credit disputes, 0% APR negotiations, and securing business funding via Dun & Bradstreet-registered accounts. His expertise extends to cryptocurrency trading, memecoins, and diverse ventures like an Oklahoma dispensary-art lounge hybrid. As CEO of Assertively Promoting Philanthropic Services (APPS, LLC) and founder of APPS HOLDINGS WY, INC.—a tech solutions firm launching AI platforms for operational efficiency—Robinson also oversees the nonprofit APPS Corporation, focusing on financial education, community wellness, and social entrepreneurship. NAPPS initiatives further amplify his commitment to transitional housing and empowerment programs.

Mentored by Lorraine Beato, author of Flip the Switch: From Real Estate Agent to Real Estate Investor (available on Amazon: https://www.amazon.com/Flip-Switch-Estate-Agent-Investor/...), Robinson's first Atlanta flip in 2018 yielded a 52% ROI, as detailed in Think Realty's "Renovation Rockstar: Atlanta Flip" (<https://thinkrealty.com/renovation-rockstar/>). Beato, leader of Atlanta's WREN chapter and Million Dollar Club member, praised the project for transforming a $57,000 purchase into a $162,500 sale. Their collaboration continues, with Beato's "Renovation Rock Stars: Portugal" feature (<https://thinkrealty.com/renovation-rock-stars-portugal/>) highlighting global innovation.

"This paperback release is a gift to those rewriting their stories," said Robinson. Support his mission via GoFundMe (<https://www.gofundme.com/f/foster-care-to-financial-freedom>).
